

CSI Advanced Adult Learning presents: Scholar-In-Residence Shabbat 2/3 & 2/4/12

We welcome Dr. Kenneth Prager:

Professor of Clinical Medicine at Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons, and Director, Clinical Ethics and Chairman of the Medical Ethics Committee of Columbia University Medical Center.

An In-Depth Look at Jewish Medical Ethics

Friday evening 2/3: Kabbalat Shabbat Services at 6 PM followed by SCHOLAR-IN-RESIDENCE DINNER: Reservations required – see tear-off below.

8:15 PM Talk: END OF LIFE ISSUES: With advances in medical technology that can prolong the dying process interminably, what guidance can we get from traditional Jewish sources? Dr. Prager will compare and contrast Halachic and secular approaches to various medical ethical issues.

Saturday 2/4: Shabbat Morning Services at 9:30 AM.

D'Var Torah by Dr. Prager: “THE MOST UNIQUE BRACHA IN ALL OF JEWISH PRAYER” – What is the meaning of the bracha religiously and medically? Dr. Prager will relate a personal story about an injury sustained by his son and how the bracha played a special role in his illness and recovery.

Kiddush Lunch open to all.

Shabbat afternoon 1:15 PM talk by Dr. Prager: ORGAN DONATION: Is organ donation permissible for Jews? What is the Jewish view on buying and selling organs? What role has Israel played in the transplant community?

Tear off and send with payment to make your S-I-R dinner reservations (deadline for dinner is Monday, January 30th). Our dinner is on Friday, February 3rd following 6 PM Kabbalat Shabbat Services. FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT ELLEN JOHNSON AT (914) 762 - 2700 OR EMAIL ELLEN@CSIBRIARCLIFF.ORG
